About the Alliance Française of Chiang Mai

The Alliance Française of Chiang Mai is a local Thai non-profit association, member of the international movement of the Alliances Françaises. Located in the heart of Chiang Mai, in a 100 years old building, the association promotes the French language and offers cultural activities without boundaries.

In order to celebrate the 60's anniversary of French-German friendship (Elysée Treaty), the Alliance Française of Chiang Mai has invited the German filmmaker Marco Wilms for a photo exhibition and a movie retrospective.

The Alliance Française also provides French classes, language exchanges, workshops, concerts, exhibitions, movie screenings and other cultural activities, as well as a library, a cafeteria and a translation service.
